India is world's leader in meat exports. The Indian meat is prepared and exported in accordance with OIE guidelines (international guidelines) for any risk mitigation. Meat export from India is going on smoothly and there are no hurdles in the supply chain.

- Indian Meat are cheaper compared to Brazil and America.

- Indian meat is softer and smoother.

- India has developed export oriented packaging and transporting facility.

Nearly two third of Basmati & Parboiled Rice produced in India is exported. The leading aromatic fine quality rice in world trade, popularly known as Basmati Rice, fetches good export price in international market for its three distinct quality feature viz. pleasant aroma, super fine grains and extreme grain elongation.

Our Rice & Pulse qualify all quality parameters and packed after lab tests to meet international standards

RICE & PULSES

Due to the large amounts of vegetables produced in India, we can vegetable export from India too. Many vegetables are included in the export of vegetables from India like Onion, Broccoli, Brinjal, Spinach, cabbage, Green chilies so on, and so forth. Pisum Foods is a leading vegetable importer from India today. We work on the export of Indian vegetables, fruits, spices, pulses, oilseeds, and such other products.
