BLACK TEA

Vietnamese Black Tea OPA

Full name: Orange Pekoe - A

OPA is the largest Vietnamese black tea. It's long, bold leaf tea with slightly twisted tea leaves. This grade takes a little bit more time to brew compared to other tea grades but has a unique taste compared to other smaller grades.

Vietnamese Black Tea OP

Full name: Black Tea Orange Pekoe

Black tea OP is fine grade of tea, made of slightly wiry and slightly twisted leaves and buds, sometimes containing some white tips. It is usually a tea made with the top 2 leaves and one bud from a tea branch. Available short, medium and long leaf size.

Vietnamese Black Tea Pekoe

This tea grade is one of the most popular grades we offer and it is the most expensive grade. Vietnamese black tea pekoe is made of young tender tea leaves, and buds. Leaves of this grade are shorter, curly, and not much wiry. The tea has a curly round appearance, strong taste, and aroma.

Vietnamese Black Tea PS

Full name: Pekoe Souchong

Vietnamese black tea PS is a flaky leaf grade with a neat appearance. The tea consists of leaves that are slightly curly but fully open.

Vietnamese Black Tea BPS

Full name: Broken Pekoe Souchong

Vietnamese black tea BPS is a smaller grade just after PS - Pekoe Souchong.

Vietnamese Black Tea Dust

Vietnamese black tea dust is fine powder tea, much finer than finning grades. It is tea leftover from producing other higher tea grades.
