Dehydrated Garlic

In general, several Indian states cultivate garlic. Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, and certain regions of Gujarat are among them. The highest-quality garlic is sourced from those states. We process white onions into cloves, flakes, chopped 5-3 mm, minced 1-3 mm, granules 0.5-1 mm, and even powder form after putting them through a number of quality checks. Dehydrated garlic from India is well-liked for its potent scent and golden brown hue.

Dehydrated Red Onion

Red onions are typically found in several Indian states, including Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, and Gujarat. Red onions are sweeter and milder. Antioxidants are more abundant in red onions than in other varieties. We buy red onions from the districts of Nashik in Maharashtra and Mahuva in Gujarat. after going through a number of quality checks. White onions are processed into kibble, flakes, minced (3 mm), chopped (5-3 mm), granules (0.5-1 mm), and even powder.

Dehydrated White Onion

White onions are typically found in Gujarat, India's lower cost, where the Gujarati district of Bhavnagar has the highest crop. The country from which the majority of fresh and even dehydrated white onions are exported. Compared to red onions, white onions have more "antibiotic and anti-inflammatory" properties. We buy white onions directly from the farmers as well as from APMC of Mahuva. after going through a number of quality checks. White onions are processed into kibbled, flake, chopped, 1-3 mm, minced, 0.5-1 mm, and even powdered forms.
