ABOUT US

Lujana is a Colombian brand with over 43 years of experience in designing and producing jewelry components and finished pieces. We have collaborated with independent designers as well as international brands, including Marni. Our work blends artisanal tradition with innovative materials such as resin, horn, wood, metals, and natural fibers. We develop pieces based on client sketches, ideas, or technical sheets, fully adapting to their needs. We produce from Bogotá, Colombia, ensuring high-quality standards, timely deliveries, and responsiveness for wholesale orders and custom projects.
